Hunter Jumper Clinic

March 19-20, 2011,
Ponca Hills Farm, Omaha, Nebraska

Take your riding to a new level when you learn from one of the most highly-regarded instructors in the horse world today.

Melanie Smith Taylor has been to the top, winning the World Cup Championship and team gold in show jumping at the 1984 Olympic Games in L.A.

Find out how you can gain confidence and improve your skills, with help from a rider who knows how to share her knowledge in a way her students can easily grasp.

Horseman Scott Wehrmann, carries on the horsemanship styles of Tom and Bill Dorrance, Ray Hunt, and Buck Brannaman. See how your horse responds to these proven methods. Scott will help you build willing communication between horse and rider.
